

It's time to join the Moralists and the Porn Industry and to widen the conversation of Sex in America - there's more to sex than doing it or not doing it; there's also what you do it for, how you do it and who you do it with.

The Partnership:

The proceeds from sales, (merchandise and swag), and paypal donations will be a 33% equal 3-way split between a charitable contribution to the choice of actor's selection, towards snacks and appreciation for our adhoc media volunteers (editors, graphic designers, web hackers, print monkies, fluffers, sex-bloggers), and support for offsetting costs of site maintenance and bandwidth.

The people have spoken:

Long live amateur sex & kittens!

Make porn not industrial military complexes!

We also support Socially-Conscious Smut otherwise known as 'Sc-mut':

This includes both content & process, meaning, we are feminist, humanists, pro-human rights, pro-earth and pro-sex. We love pornography not misogyny.

Sample Series Ideas:

- The Garden of Earthly Delights (going green, gang-bang style)
- Bicycle Servicing (Learn how to properly Lube for a better Ride)
- Cultural Theory Bedtime Stories (Developing a critical and political inquiry, In Bed)
- Open Access (The basics of Open Computer Networking and Open Relationships)

Nice Feels Sexy.com

Family values + sex, finally in the same
bed together.

Is a volunteer based, 'adult', civic organization dedicated to the proliferation of desire for a better society through the distribution of pornography.

We are in the business of desire circulation for better, hotter, sexier, social intercourse.

We support causes that we believe in and create interesting, informative and infatuated communications through various media platforms.

The Internet was founded on the dual foundations of amateur sex & kittens.
Rather than fight this demand, we have opted to take these emergent tendencies to our perverted endpoint; we support a world where porn and kittens need not be at ideological and political odds with one another. Who says that sex perverts cannot be kind, caring, gentle souls with civic pride? We believe in love and respect for all living creatures. We believe in the possibility of mentally stimulating and challenging porn.

Our motto:

*Be a fluffer for self-change,
not a soldier for mass-ideology.
We will fuck for a kinder, gentler future.*

The Format:

We make PSAs (Pornographic Service Announcements, where everyday people get it on with changing their everyday habits)

We focus on simple and sexy things you can do everyday, clear step-by-step instructions delivered in a stimulating and humorous style.

The Plan:

We recruit passionate people to be Lovers for their cause.

Anyone can share and submit their passions for civic and social change.

We work to bring wider awareness for local civicly engaged groups such as bicycle groups, community gardens, open labs, and art + activist groups, by allowing for these PSAs (Pornographic Service Announcements) to introduce these groups to a wider audience and for a different dialogue around sex (one currently dominated by morality and commerce) to begin.

hi trusted friends and colleagues,

so. this is an idea that I've been think about for ages and it's fraught with problems and yet I think if done well could be really interesting and worthwhile.

i'd love to hear your critical feedback, as while it is still a seed of an idea, it would be great to get all sorts of slings and arrows thrown at it.

You're each a trusted voice on a spectrum related to the central issues, so I'd appreciate your honest, considered thoughts on potential pitfalls and initial gut reactions to the merits of this idea in general. I know, on some level it suffers from being both naive and whacked, but somehow there is something in it that seems to make sense.

As provocation is being used as one of the tactics for social change, I apologize in advance if any of the copy below offends - but please let me know what is offensive to you and
why. In case you're easily offended or shy, I've bcc'd your emails, so only 'Reply All' if the exhibitionist in you calls forth.

thanks very much!
